Important excerpts from

The Code of a READING WARRIOR

1. Warrior cats defend their Clan, even if they must go into battle against a friend. You may have friendships with nonreaders, but defend your right to read and set aside time each day for books.
2. Just as warrior cats thank their elders and StarClan, Reading Warriors must thank elders, booksellers, and librarians who help them find good books. Good books are a Reading Warrior's prey.
3. Like warrior cats, Reading Warriors have their own dens. Your den is your special territory where you can spend time with books.
4. A warrior cat rejects the soft life of a kittypet. A Reading Warrior rejects the dull life of a nonreader.
